

This is to confirm that I have read and agree to abide by the PBHA Time Bank's Code of Conduct. In addition, I have read and agree to the following:

- To keep confidential any personal or confidential information supplied by the PBHA Time Bank or any other Member under this timebanking scheme.

- The PBHA Time Bank will store details regarding individuals solely for the purposes of administrating the project. The storage of any information will follow legislation as detailed within the data protection and privacy statement available on request. By joining the PBHA Time Bank, you are consenting to the storage of your information for the purposes of running the PBHA Time Bank. The storage of this information will be reviewed after 2 years and you will be contacted to give your consent to remain a member.

- The information you provide will be shared only inside PBHA and with Time Bank UK (who manage the software).

- When becoming a Member of the PBHA Time Bank we will post your offers and requests on the Time Online 2 software, managed by Time Bank UK. The PBHA Time Bank may wish to feature people's stories and/or images in a newsletter, on the website or in promotional material. We will always gain your agreement before we publish anything.
